Patsy Hernandez Named VP of Finance & Administration at Parent Pathways

DENVER – April 15, 2009 –

Patsy Hernandez has been named Vice President of Finance and Administration for Parent Pathways, a Denver nonprofit that helps teen parents raise healthy families, President and Chief Executive Officer Noreen Keleshian announced today.

“Patsy’s broad business background will be very helpful here, and includes work with for-profit companies, private nonprofit organizations, and in the government arena,” said Keleshian.

For the past five years, Hernandez has been the Finance Director for Garfield County, living in the Greenwood Springs area. In her new position at Parent Pathways, she will be responsible for the leadership and management of finance and accounting, facilities, information systems and administrative functions.

Other previous positions include Controller of the Rocky Mountain Institute in Snowmass, CO; Assistant Vice President of Operations of New Frontier Bank in Greeley, CO; and Director of Administrative Operations/Executive Director of Great Western Association Management Company in Englewood, CO.

About Parent Pathways

Parent Pathways is a Denver-based nonprofit that empowers struggling teen families to be productive members of the community. Using a holistic and proven approach, Parent Pathways offers a spectrum of wrap-around services for the entire teen family, including education, career guidance and parenting training for pregnant and parenting teen mothers at the Florence Crittenton School; early childhood education for their babies and toddlers at the Qualistar-rated Early Learning Center; and counseling, education and parenting support for teen fathers through the Young Fathers Program.
