Marcia Jamison Joins Parent Pathways Staff

Brings Volunteer/Special Events Experience from Komen & the Girl Scouts

DENVER – Feb. 9, 2009 – Marcia Jamison has joined the staff of Parent Pathways as Special Events & Volunteers Manager, President and Chief Executive Officer Noreen Keleshian announced today.

Jamison was most recently Volunteer and Education Coordinator for the Denver edition of the Susan G. Komen Race for the Cure and a Field Executive for the Mile Hi Council of the Girl Scouts of America. She also managed education programs for Junior Achievement Rocky Mountain, Inc.

A former educator with a Bachelor's of Science in Education from Herbert H. Lehman College in New York and a Master's Degree in Education from Hunter College of the City University of New York, Jamison taught consumer studies at Aurora Public Schools for ten years.

“Marcia’s unique combination of experience working with volunteers, putting on events and getting into the trenches teaching make her a perfect fit for Parent Pathways,” said Suzanne Banning, Vice President of Development & Marketing.

“Her commitment to the well-being of girls is evident from her experience with Komen and the Girl Scouts, and her teaching background will help her understand our clients’ perspective,” added Banning. “We’re very excited to have Marcia on board!”

Jamison started on Feb. 9, 2009, and immediately began planning Parent Pathways’ annual fundraiser, the 5th Annual Parent Pathways 5K Run/Walk, which will be held on May 9, 2009, at Central Park-Stapleton. She can be reached at mjamison@parentpathways.org.

About Parent Pathways: Parent Pathways is a Denver-based not-for-profit that empowers struggling teen families to be productive members of the community. Our holistic and progressive approaches in the areas of education, early childhood education and supportive services encompass the entire teen family. We help our clients succeed in three ways: by providing teen mothers with education through the Florence Crittenton School, by providing infant and toddler care for their children, and by counseling and supporting teen fathers.
