Michael Kehoe Joins Board of Nonprofit Parent Pathways

Appointment Continues PCL Construction's Commitment to Helping Teen Families

DENVER, COLORADO - Nov. 9, 2009 – Michael J. Kehoe, Vice President of Finance for PCL Construction Enterprises, Inc., has joined the Board of Parent Pathways, the Denver nonprofit that helps teen parents raise healthy families.

Kehoe, 44, of Golden, was formerly Senior Manager of KPMG, LLP. He has an MBA in Accounting from the University of Colorado-Boulder and a BS in Investment, Banking and Finance from the University of Wisconsin-Madison.

PCL Construction is the seventh largest general contracting organization in the United States, with annual volume over $6 billion. The company has been a devoted supporter of Parent Pathways, providing former Board member Shaun Yancey, PCL's Senior Vice President, and repeatedly sponsoring the agency's annual luncheon.

PCL fielded the largest fund-raising team for Parent Pathways 2009 "Miles for Moms" Run/Walk, recently donated 100 tickets to a preview of Denver Zoo Lights to Florence Crittenton School students and their families, and has provided in-kind support for various construction and maintenance projects for the school for pregnant and parenting teens.

About Parent Pathways

Parent Pathways is a Denver-based non-profit that empowers struggling teen families to be productive members of the community. Using a holistic and proven approach, Parent Pathways offers a spectrum of wraparound services for the entire teen family, including education, career guidance and parenting training for pregnant and parenting teen mothers at the Florence Crittenton School; early childhood education for their babies and toddlers at the Qualistar-rated Early Learning Center; and counseling, education and parenting support for teen fathers through the Young Fathers Program.
