Homecoming/Reunion Friday at Florence Crittenton School

High School for Teen Parents Welcomes Back Students, Staff on 25th Anniversary

DENVER, COLORADO - Sept. 27, 2009 –

Parent Pathways, the Denver nonprofit that helps teen parents raise healthy families, celebrates its 25th anniversary Homecoming this Friday at its Florence Crittenton School. Alumni and staff members from the school, formerly known as the Teen Parent Education Network, or TPEN, are urged to visit the school between 4 and 7 p.m.

Friday's Homecoming Schedule:

- 2-3:45 pm -- Staff vs. Students volleyball tournament (in the Parent Pathways parking lot at 55 S. Zuni Street, across the street from the school)
- 2-5 pm -- Garage Sale (free gently used items for students and alumni to pick up including children's winter clothing, Halloween costumes and much more, behind the Parent Pathways building)
- 4-5:30 pm -- Alumni arrive and can start painting commemorative bricks in the Alumni Stairwell, take surveys about their progress since graduation and catch up with old friends and teachers/staff. A display featuring 25 years of the Florence Crittenton School, accompanied by a documentary produced recently by Accenture, will be available for viewing in the lobby of the Parent Pathways administrative building at 55 South Zuni Street.
- 5:45-6:15 pm -- Awards Ceremony to honor former staff. (55 S. Zuni St.) Light refreshments will be served.
- 6:15-7 pm -- Continue catching up and close of the evening.

About Parent Pathways

Parent Pathways is a Denver-based non-profit that empowers struggling teen families to be productive members of the community. Using a holistic and proven approach, Parent Pathways offers a spectrum of wraparound services for the entire teen family, including education, career guidance and parenting training for pregnant and parenting teen mothers at the Florence Crittenton School; early childhood education for their babies and toddlers at the Qualistar-rated Early Learning Center; and counseling, education and parenting support for teen fathers through the Young Fathers Program.
